Mediation, Arbitration, Special Master and Referee Services

Current Practice

- Extensive experience in mediating and arbitrating matters of all types. These include:
 - Banking: including foreclosure related cases
 - Civil Rights: including employment and housing discrimination
 - Class Action: wage and hour suits involving thousands of claimants
 - Construction: includes disagreements over commercial and residential structures
 - Corporate and partnership dissolution: for a variety of businesses, including law partnerships
 - Discrimination: matters based on age, gender and race
 - Family law: divorce cases for those with and without legal counsel
 - Insurance Coverage: situations involving severe personal injury and substantial claims
 - Legal Malpractice: for claims involving law firms and individual attorneys
 - Medical Malpractice: matters have involved both individual physicians and large medical institutions
 - Personal Injury: representative cases include job and automobile related injuries
 - Real Property: numerous cases involving zoning disputes, alleged unfair trade practices by developers and disputes between neighbors
 - Sexual Abuse: representative examples include workplace abuse
 - Sexual Harassment: cases include individuals and classes
 - Wrongful Death: including civil matters following criminal proceedings and claims with insurance companies and/or potentially liable private parties
- Because of my experience on the bench, I am available to serve as a discovery referee, special master or early neutral evaluator in a wide range of legal matters.
- Member American Arbitration Association judicial panel.
